GOALS, PURPOSES AND OBJECTIVES OF PHOENIX INDIAN SCHOOL

1. To help students learn to exercise the privileges and responsibilities of a citizen in a democratic society; to develop sound moral and spiritual values and to appreciate their own heritage as well as the cultural heritage of the society.
2. To help students improve their communication skills; increase their own creative awareness and their appreciation of the creativity of others; and evaluate and achieve satisfactory vocational and academic goals.
3. To help students understand the home and family as the basis for society; to understand and maintain sound mental and physical health; and to adjust socially and personally.
4. To assist students in developing their sense of self worth and the respect of the worth of others.

ORGANIZATIONS

ACTIVITIES

Students Learn Through On-The-Job Training

The Volunteer Work Experience class is designed to help students gain experience and skills not normally taught in the classroom that could be useful in later life. These students attend class for one hour and work on-the-job for two hours.

In the program students earn three hours of credit along with the experience gained from working. Mrs. Dawson, work experience coordinator, feels that students enjoy V.W.E. because they learn skills by working alongside experienced people.

Tina Stevenson was a dental aide.

Georgianna Albert was a nursing aide.

Ed Benally worked at Stephen's Auto Parts.

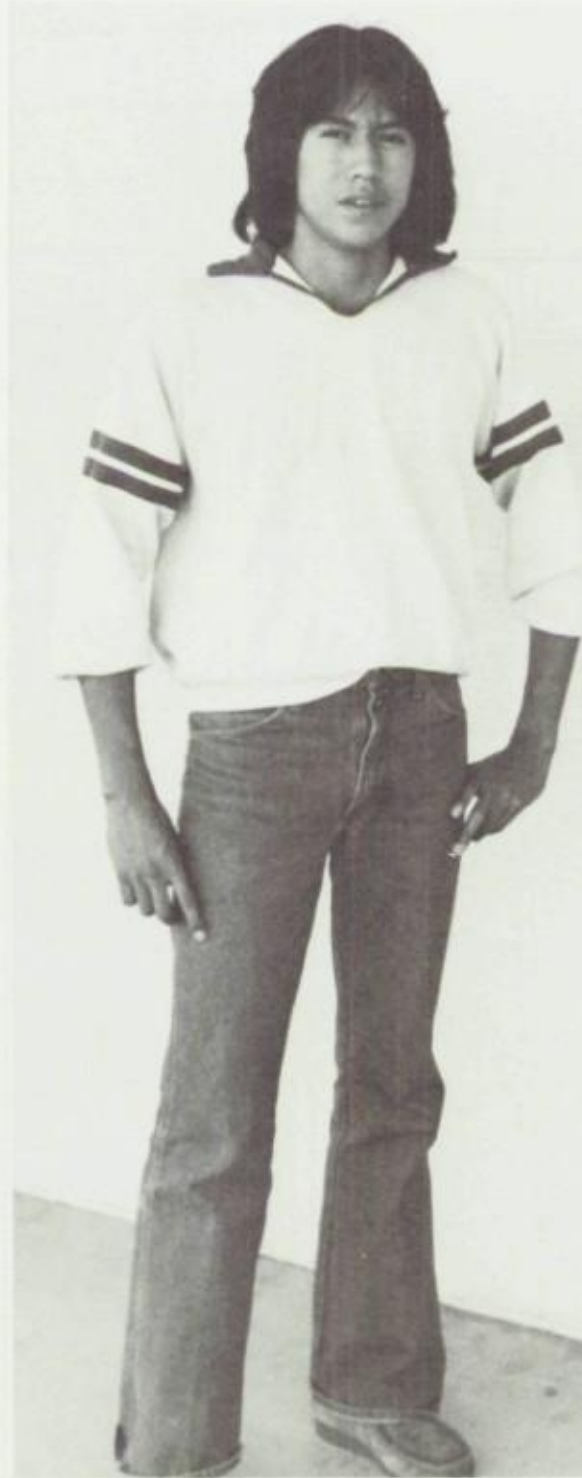

Mary Frank worked at P.I.M.C. administration.

Jolene Lomatska was lab aide.

Ricky Sekayumtewa worked with P.I.M.C. engineering.

Quinton Bowannie worked at an elementary school.

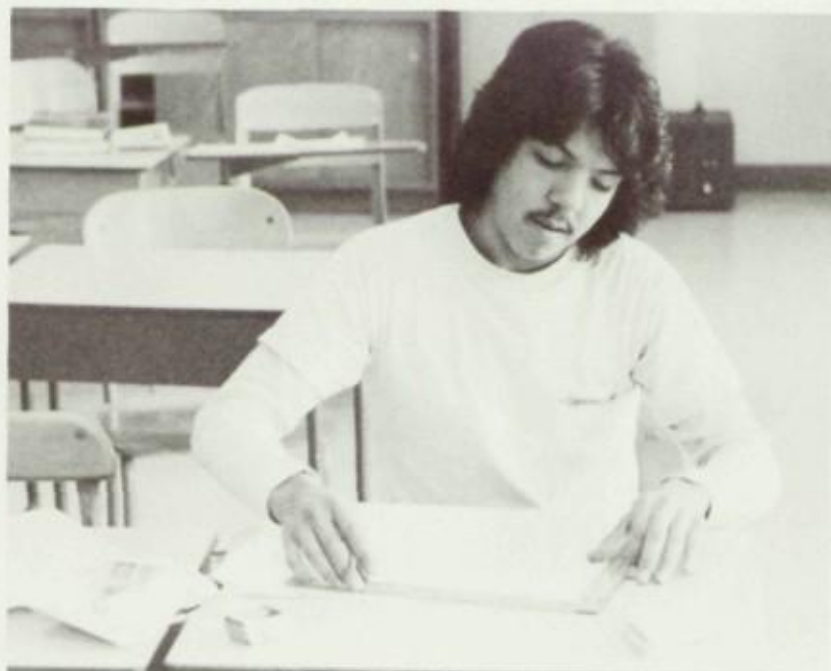

Mrs. Dawson is the V.W.E. program coordinator.

Even though the yearbook just looks like another pictorial magazine with a hardback cover, it is supposed to represent the 1980-1981 school year at Phoenix Indian in its historical entirety.

The yearbook staff helped to assemble, layout, proofread, and do all the other things that are necessary to organize the annual. Congratulations to the staff of the yearbook and special thanks to Richard Saunders for his many hours of devoted work in the darkroom.

The newspaper staff consists of students who are interested in learning about newspaper design and layout. Mr. Lentz's fourth hour Journalism I class is the newspaper staff. Students learn journalism techniques concerning writing, editing, advertising, interviewing, and producing. The paper is produced for the students by the students. An annual field-trip to the Arizona Republic and Gazette helps to give the impressions on the newspaper profession on the larger scale. Because of budget cutbacks and the phase-out of the on-campus print shop, the school paper was only published every two months.

The National Honor Society began the school year with 8 members: four Juniors-Jo Lynn Huma, Arlene Leslie, Melvina Boone, and Andrea Yuyaheova; and four Seniors-Irwin Poleahla, Jolene Lomatska, Quentin Bowannie, and Leona Josytewa. Three more students were brought into the club as new members February 25th. They were Martin Talayumptewa II, a senior, Leenford Lomatska and Wayne Maxfield, sophomores.

This year our banquet for induction of new members was held at the Black Angus Restaurant at 2125 E. Camelback Rd. in Phoenix. It was well attended by parents, friends, and relatives of the members, as well as by school teachers and administrators.

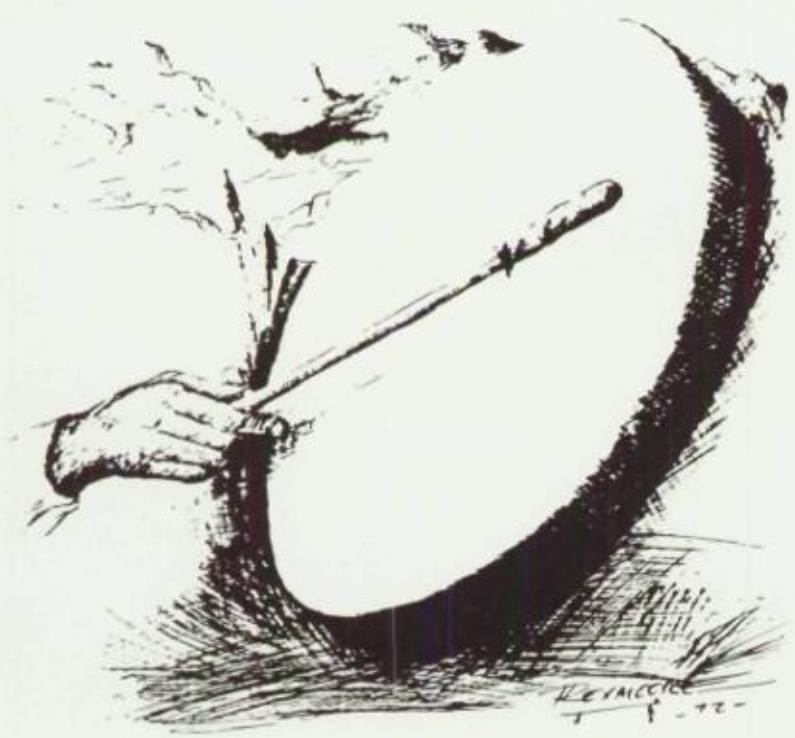

Honor Society members must have excellent grades that they maintain semester by semester, but they must also have good character as well as leadership abilities. Irwin Poleahla is President of the club; Jolene Lomatska is Vice-President; Jo Lynn Huma is Secretary; and Andrea Yuyaheova is Treasurer.

These are the N.H.S. new members: Wayne Maxfield, Martin Talayumptewa, and Leenford Lomatska.

Society leadership provided by Irwin Poleahla, president; Jolene Lomatska, vice-president; Andrea Yuyaheova, treasurer; JoLynn Huma, secretary.

Cheerleaders Help Add Spirit!

Some very important elements help to add an extra dimension at ball games. Two of those elements were the cheerleaders and the pep band. Special recognition should go out to the cheerleaders, whose work often goes unnoticed in the athletic curriculum.

This year's varsity cheerleaders consisted of five girls: seniors- Betsy Whatoname, Tina Canner (Captain), Marcella Doka, Isabelle Fritz, and junior- Michelle Fritz. These girls were selected at the start of the school year, and they cheered for both the football and basketball teams.

Students Publicly Display Their Cultural Traditions

We Will Remember Miles Bollinger!

On February 14, 1981, Miles Bollinger died of a heart attack, the second one he had within two months. Miles was Phoenix Indian High School's recently retired principal. He retired February 22, 1980. Miles was principal at P.I. since 1969.

Miles will be remembered for many things, such as: his cup of coffee in hand, his motorcycle, his P.I. baseball cap on his head.

Anyone that knew Miles Bollinger will remember him as an outstanding principal and person.

For the first time in many seasons the Braves grid-men recorded a winning record on both the varsity and junior varsity level. Both teams finished at 4 wins and 3 loses.

Highlights of the season were: the first victory by a Braves' team over Bagdad and wins over Baboquivari, Sherman Indian, and Judson.

Paul Reuter and Charlie Lucky were the coaching staff for the team. Thirty-six boys finished the season. Many, however, quit before the end. Coach Reuter summarized his feelings about the season. "We accomplished two of the goals I had set. We had a winning season on the varsity level, and we developed a winning JV program. However, we fell short on the third goal — improving on the number of boys participating. I was very disappointed with the large number of boys who quit."

The most valuable player was Milfred Miguel. Most improved player was Delson Sam.

Junior varsity runners, Darrell Wallace, Andy Selestewa, and William Selestewa, show their running form.

Runners find shade to stretch out prior to a meet.

The cross country season was a very successful one. The team won ten of eleven dual or triangular meets. The only loss in dual meet competition was to Sherman Indian School at a meet in Riverside, California. The team placed first at the divisionals. The team also won first place at the prestigious Mingus Invitational, which attracted sixteen teams from all over Arizona. The team recorded a sixth place finish at the state meet.

The top runner was Ralph Lamson. Graduating are Ricky Sekayumtewa, Martin Talayumtewa, and Lamson. Younger teammates should continue P.I.'s excellence in the distance running area.

The Braves' basketball team started out the season winning its first two games. After that point the team had difficult times, losing the remainder of its games. Nine of the varsity's games were decided by ten or less points.

The J.V. and frosh teams were more successful as far as won-loss record is concerned. All the participants in the basketball program did give their utmost effort. The season provided many thrills!

Three starters return to next year's varsity team. Peter Mitchell was selected as the M.I.P. Roy Track III was elected the M.V.P. Roy was also elected as an ALL-CONFERENCE performer by opposing coaches.

Arlene Leslie bumps.

Seventy-five girls signed up for volleyball this year. Forty two actually came out. The varsity finished the season with 14 girls and J.V. with 12. Every one was excited about volleyball.

The girls had a pretty good season, although they had a late start. The varsity ended the season with 7 wins and 8 losses. And the J.V. with 5 wins and 11 losses. The varsity went on to Divisionals and lost their first game with the score of 8-15 and 11-15.

The seniors we will be missing are Rafella Wilson, Tina Stevenson, Rose Moreno, Pam Manuel and Monica Miguel. We have some individuals returning that will take us to State next year. "State is our goal for 81," stated J.B. Hill.

Rose checks out her serve.

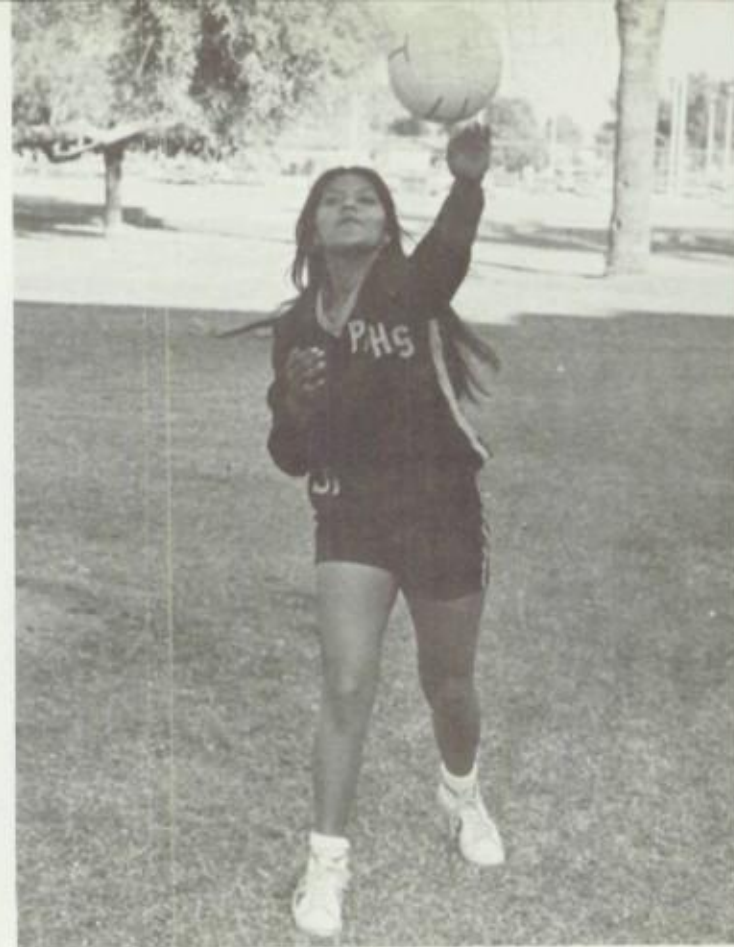

Tina gets ready to serve.

Rafella serves the ball with a smile.

1. (L to R) Rafella Wilson, Tina Stevenson, Pam Manuel, Rose Moreno, and Monica Miguel are P.I.'s graduating seniors.

2. Veronica Redbird barely hits the ball over the net.

3. Martha's short arms can't reach the ball.

4. Pam Manuel goes down low to save the ball.

5. Cindy Garcia smiles while playing.

Joe Michelitch summarizes the season.

"During the season the competition was tough. The opposing teams were well coached. We tried hard to work together as a team. We were never really able to function as a unit, and this, I believe, led us to a dismal season of one win and seventeen losses. We had the ability to compete with the best of them, but the sacrifices and dedication to win were sometimes lacking. Missed practices obviously hurt a great deal."
